

Code of Conduct for RMC Students

PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to establish consistent disciplinary rules and regulation for RMC Students to follow and adhere as laid down in this policy.

SCOPE

This Policy covers RMC students in various professional years.

PROCEDURE

In dealing with any breach of discipline, infringement of any of the rules and regulations mentioned below, the principal or designated concerned may take any action deemed appropriate including fine, suspension and/or rustication.

Students must wear the prescribed dress within college and hospital premises as a mandatory requirement (including extra classes, class tests, examinations, and official visits).

Students must obtain and display their Identity cards visibly on their overalls. Loss must be promptly reported to Student Affairs office and a duplicate obtained on charges. Violation of dress code shall subject students to disciplinary action.

Students are to observe discipline and avoid making noise while in the College and hospital premises.

Students are forbidden to indulge in any improper behavior or activity in the College and hospital premises during or after the College hours.

Students found indulging in acts such as loitering, making noise, sitting on stairs or places other than allocated areas, wall chalking, putting posters in unauthorized areas or any other acts deemed unbecoming by college authorities shall be liable to appropriate disciplinary action.

Students will not bring any outsider to the College, except parents/guardians who under exceptional circumstances can visit the administration. They will be issued temporary ID cards and will be permitted only in the designated area.

Any student breaking or damaging any College or hospital property shall be required to pay the cost of repair or replacement; in case of willful damage appropriate disciplinary action will also be taken.

Mobile handsets are not allowed during college hours.

No student shall be permitted to have any connection with a private dispensary or a consulting room to pose or work as a medical practitioner.

Students are strictly prohibited to keep firearms and other weapons in their rooms or on their person. The possession/use of narcotics is strictly prohibited. Anyone found in possession of or using narcotics, firearms or any other weapon of assault will be expelled from the College immediately. In case of suspicion any room or person can be searched without prior notice.

Safety measures for handling acid or other injurious substances, etc. are to be strictly followed.

All accidents must be reported to the authorities immediately.

The College, hostels and hospital premises are No Smoking Areas.

All irregularities, negligence of duties, breach of discipline and actions taken are to be brought to the notice of the principal by the teacher.

Any complaint(s) by the student or against students shall be examined by the disciplinary committee upon instructions issued by the principal or vice principal.

Any student desirous of communicating with the principal for any matter may do so by making a formal request through the Student Affairs Office.

Joint representations by students are entirely prohibited and will not be entertained.

RMC Authorities may expel a student at any time if it is not satisfied with his/her health, conduct or character.

Parents/guardians are expected to cooperate with the college authorities by ensuring that their children/wards do not take any part in anti-institutional activities.

It is desirable for students to engage themselves to a reasonable extent in wholesome co-curricular activities such as authorized sports and literary pursuits during leisure time.

No unauthorized game is to be played in the College or hospital premises at any time. Any student at the College who indulges in political activities or other unbecoming acts of a student will be liable to appropriate disciplinary action.

No person shall be invited to address a meeting or society in the College premises without prior permission of the principal. In all cases, the chair shall be occupied by responsible person approved for the purpose by the principal. The subject of debate/address shall be fixed after obtaining the approval of the principal in advance.

No student shall address a press conference, nor write to the press on political or related subject or matters concerned directly with the administration of the College, University or any Government or Educational Institution in Pakistan or abroad. No poster or banners shall be put up without the approval of the principal.

No society may be set up by the students nor any meeting held in the College premises without the written permission of the principal.

The authority may take appropriate disciplinary action if any student does not fulfill his/her academic and financial obligations to RMC and knowingly violates agreements reached at the time of admission by student with the institution.

Any student found to abuse, unauthorized or fraudulent use of computers, network system or computer files shall be liable to appropriate disciplinary action.

Any form of intimidation, bullying, ragging, abusive language, assault or harassment of students, staff, faculty, patients, or other clients within or outside the institute is strictly prohibited.

Photography/videography is strictly not allowed within college and hospital premises without prior permission from college authorities.

Students must seek prior permission from the principal or vice principal before soliciting donations or any fundraising activity.

Every student is required to be punctual and strictly follow notified college schedule.

No student is eligible for university examination without having attended at least 75% of lectures, demonstrations, tutorials, and practical / clinical work both in-patient and out-patient departments in that academic session.
